Schools have a Licence to Copy
one chapter or 5% for teaching

About the Licence to Copy campaign

Copyright means that you need to seek permission before you can re-use published material. When you see this badge in a book it means that you are licensed to copy 5% or one chapter from the book for your lessons to support learning as well as saving yourself valuable planning time.

So keep an eye out for the badge on books and in catalogues and look out for blogs or share our social media stories to help all UK teachers understand that they have a licence to copy.

This is an industry initiative by CLA and supported by educational publishers and authors

What can and can't be copied

The table below goes over some of the publications that are or aren't covered under the CLA Education Licence. Remember that you can always check which licences your school holds on the CLA website. Visit cla.co.uk/cla-schools-licence to learn about the licence in more depth and how schools licensing is organised.

What can be copied with our licence	What can't be copied with our licence
Books	Workbooks, workcards, assignment sheets, test/assessment papers
Journals	Maps and charts
Magazines	Newspapers ¹
Digital version or e-books	Printed music ²
Some websites	A work which has been expressly excluded by the rightsholder
To check if any given book, magazine or specific work is covered by the licence, please use our Check Permissions search tool .

¹ Newspapers may be copied under NLA Media Access Licence

² Printed music may be copied under the Schools Printed Music Licence

How to check if your book or magazine is covered

If you're not sure whether a specific publication is covered, you can use CLA's Check Permissions tool, available on (almost) every page of the website. Check Permissions lets you specify your licence type and then search publications by ISBN, ISSN, Title, or Author to verify whether or not they are covered by the licence.
